

Charity Coffee Mornings at Mid-England Barrow

1. Any charity, local or national, is welcome to hold a coffee morning at Mid-England Barrow. You will be asked to provide your registered charity reference number.
2. There is no charge for the use of the tent, nor provision of tea, coffee, or cakes.

What we offer.

1. Publicity through our website, 'nextdoor' and local village magazine.
2. Submission of information to local newspapers whatson pages.
3. Use of the safari tent, registered kitchen and mains toilet for 1.5 hours on a Thursday morning (other times by arrangement)
4. Opportunity to bring non-food items for sale, and promotional literature.
5. Bookings on a first come basis throughout 2021. Please note it may be necessary to limit the number of bookings a charity may make.

What we expect from the charity.

1. Information in advance as to how many attendees are expected (we appreciate this can only be an estimation)
2. Publicity in any way possible, local / national, to ensure number of attendees is maximised.
3. Attendance for the duration of the coffee morning by at least one charity representative.
4. Reference to Mid-England Barrow (text or photographic) in any literature relating to the coffee morning either before or after the event.

Why are we doing this, and is there a catch?

There is no catch. We are making this offer for the following reasons:

1. To raise our profile in the local community
2. To maximize the use of our valuable space – the safari tent
3. To offer something back to the community and charities.
